MORE THAN JUST A MOMENT

Molly H. Savard
Executive Director

It hasn't been that long ago that I wrote to the families and friends of the Bradley Home. Our last newsletter was from the Spring of 2007 and here we are in the Fall of 2008.

In my last letter I wished for a peaceful summer and a warm winter. We got both – and our mild winter certainly helped keep the cost of fuel down for the winter. This year I'll hope for the same.

We have seen more retirements here at The Bradley Home. Our Controller, Jeanne Lyons, retired this past winter. Jeanne had been with the Home for 30 years in a variety of capacities. We wish she and her family health and contentment.

Diane Kane, (daughter-in-law of Julie Kane, who family members know as the “lady who hands out the allowances”) took over as Controller. Diane is an accountant with an agile mind and a way about her that inspires confidence in her ability to tend to the financial affairs of the Bradley Home. She has proven herself time and again to be a tremendous asset to the Home.

Last fall, I was personally surprised by a round of congratulations and cake from the Board of Directors to mark my twenty five years as the Administrator and Executive Director of the Bradley Home. .

Speaking of the Board, William Murdy became Chairman of the Board of Directors at the 2007 Annual meeting in November. Gerard Adelman is the First Vice President, Wilfredo Nieves is the Second Vice Chairman, Wayne Huskes is the Treasurer, David Wyskiel is the Secretary and Jack Brooks is the immediate past Chairman.

Cynthia Gutierrez, Ann Giannetti and Winifred Leary finished their terms of service and have stepped down from the Board. They are fondly remembered for their dedication to the well being of the Bradley Homes' residents.

We've added some new members, Sr. Georgeann Vumbaco, Michelle Thibeault, and Donna Jones. Already they have shown their enthusiasm and willingness to make the Home the best possible place to live and work.

TOTAL CONTRIBUTIONS OF $8129.95

For the past four years the Bradley Home has sent out word to our families, friends, and benefactors. “We have a wish!”

Our supporters have responded with such a magnificent outpouring of generosity that the Board of Directors and staff of the Bradley Home have once again been able to complete many of the most pressing projects.

We are happy to share with you a report of what was accomplished last year. Thanks to the generosity of the Meriden Lions Club the back parking lot at the Bradley Home is now fully lit at night. This has contributed greatly to everyone's sense of safety and security.

The Pavilion residents have been able to sit outside in the Memorial courtyard under beautiful sun umbrellas thanks to the Kiwanis Club. Thanks to private donors we have lights on the Alberta spruce out front this year and a whole lot more work has been done to the landscape and trees.
